

CaLL: CARDIFF LANGUAGE AND LAW
A Forensic Linguistic Research Network

One day symposium:
Expertise in Language and Law
Friday 27th November 2015

Room 2.03, JOHN PERCIVAL BUILDING, COLUM DRIVE, CARDIFF UNIVERSITY

9.10-9.20	WELCOME (Michelle Aldridge)
9.20-11.15	KEYNOTE TALKS
9.20-10.00	Professor Martin Innes (Introduced by Frances Rock) Crime and Security Research Institute, Cardiff University Open source communications and counter-terrorism
10.00-10.30	Dr Helen Fraser (SKYPE) (Introduced by Frances Rock) Forensic Phonetics, Australia What happens when forensic linguists are not asked for their expertise?
10.30-11.10	Professor Harry Collins (Introduced by Chris Heffer) Centre for the Study of Knowledge, Expertise and Science Cardiff University The theory of interactional expertise
11.10-11.30	TEA/COFFEE BREAK (room 1.31) Chair: Michelle Aldridge
11.30-12.00	Paulina Wilson (Queen's University, Belfast) Communicating Issues of Substantive law in bilingual Criminal proceedings: A call for the engagement of experts
12.00-12.30	Jonathan Bishop (Crocels) Differences between the definitions of computer jargon between experts and laypersons: Implications for the British Jury and magistrates system
12.30-1.00	Nicci Macleod & Tim Grant (Aston University) Modelling Online Identities: Linguistic Contributions to Training Undercover Investigators
1.00-2.00	LUNCH (room 1.31)

2.00-2.40	KEYNOTE TALK
	Professor Lorna Fadden & Professor Lawrence M. Solan (SKYPE) (Introduced by Frances Rock) Simon Fraser University & Brooklyn Law School Communicating with Experts
	Chair : Chris Heffer
2.40-3.10	Joanne Traynor & Frances Rock (Essex Police & Cardiff University) Lost in translation: Representation and expertise within a police control room
3.10-3.40	Tina Pereira & Michelle Aldridge (Cardiff University) The role and expertise of the Registered Intermediary in the Justice System: Understanding numeracy
3.40-4.00	TEA BREAK (room 1.31)
	Chair: Frances Rock
4.00-4.30	Chris Heffer & Emily Powell (Cardiff University) Expertise as rhetorical construction: the marketing of lie detection technologies
4.30-5.00	Jade Biyu Du (The University of Hong Kong) Interpreting in Chinese Criminal Courts: what is the scope of expertise and who can be the expert
5.00	CLOSING REMARKS

Poster presentation

Ivan Mugabi

School of Law & Politics (Cardiff University)

The changing context of rehabilitation for persons with disabilities