{Account of John of Bloxham to whom the king through his letters patent dated 9 October 1311 entrusted the custody of the all the lands and tenancies of the Templars in Oxfordshire, Berkshire, Wiltshire and Northamptonshire which are in the king's hands for certain causes, except for the manor of Bisham in Berkshire, to hold for as long as the king pleases, viz for the receipts from the manors of Warpsgrove with Easington, Sandford with Littlemore, Cowley with Horspath, Bridgestreet and Garsington which formerly belonged to the said Templars in Oxforshire from 30 October 1311 (on which day the same John received the aforesaid manors with goods and chattels which were in them from Edward Bacon, attorney of Piers Gaveston former earl of Cornwall to whom the king had previously entrusted the same manors, through indenture made between the same Edward and John), until Michaelmas next following, 1312. And for the receipts from the manors of Sibford Gower & Broadwell with the church of the same town, Templeton & Merton with Blethingdon, Fencot & Hampton' Gay which are branches of the same manor of Merton, and of certain tenancies and revenues in the towns of Oxford, Hensington, Woodstock, Sparsholt, Speen & Westcot in Oxfordshire and Berkshire. And of certain tenancies in Lacock, Wilton & Corsley<sup>2</sup> in Wiltshire and certain revenues in Northampton and various other towns in the same County of Northampton which formerly belonged to the said Templars, viz. from Michaelmas 1311 until the same day next following(1312). For the reasons set out at the end of the account he does not answer for the receipts for the manors of Chiriton and Rockley in Wiltshire which belonged to the same Templars. For the periods above the same John answers in his account. And he answers below.}

{The town of Oxford and other towns in Oxon, Berks, Wilts and Northants: the same renders account for 3 s 6 d in rents of assise in the town and suburb of Oxford paid on St Thomas the Apostle's day (21 December) as is contained in the particulars of account which he sent to the Treasury. He does not answer for rents of assise in the town of Hensington Woodstock, Sparsholt and Westcote, or for the farm of a certain tenement in Sparsholt and Westcote, a certain annual pension in Spene in Oxfordshire, or rents and farms in Lacock, Wilton and Corsley in Wiltshire, Welford, Buckby, Northampton and other town in Northamptonshire, from Michaelmas in 7 Edw. II (1313) until the said 4 January 1314 next following (1314), because he says that the payment dates of the same rents, farm and pensions did not fall within that same time.

Total receipts: 3 s 6 d.

Account ends with a tallying up of what the custodian finally owes from the manors in Oxon and Berks}.
