

Symposium on Register in an SFL perspective

Cardiff University

March 14, 2016

9.00 - 9.50	Information Density in Scientific Writing: A Diachronic Perspective  Elke Teich (Universität des Saarlandes)                  Room 2.03, John Percival Building
10.50 -10.30	Coffee break
10.30 - 12.30	Part 1: Mixed Methods in Linguistics: exploring the challenges of data combination through four different projects  Rebekah Wegener (RWTH Aachen University)                  Room 1.02, John Percival Building	Part 1: Quantifying register in a systemic functional perspective  Stella Neumann (RWTH Aachen University)                  Training Room 1, Julian Hodge Building
12:30 -13:30	Lunch
13.30 -14:30	Part 2: Mixed Methods in Linguistics: exploring the challenges of data combination through four different projects  Rebekah Wegener (RWTH Aachen University)                  Training Room 2, Julian Hodge Building	Part 2: Quantifying register in a systemic functional perspective  Stella Neumann (RWTH Aachen University)                  Training Room 1, Julian Hodge Building
14:30 -15:00	Coffee break
15.00 -17.50	An Introduction to the UAM CorpusTool  Lise Fontaine (Cardiff University)                  Training Room 2, Julian Hodge Building	Using corpus software to explore register  Mick O'Donnell (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid)                  Training Room 1, Julian Hodge Building
18.00 -18.45	Tribute to Geoff Thompson  Susan Hunston (Birmingham University)                  Aberdare Hall
18:45 - 20.00	Wine and cheese reception in honour of Geoff Thompson                  Aberdare Hall, with live classical music                  Everyone is welcome.	